Day 2: Copenhagen

Breakfast.

Saxo Grammaticus' work Gesta Danorum (The Deeds of the Danes) is the chief source of Denmark's early history. It was commissioned by Bishop Absalon, the man who more than anyone else can lay claim to be the founding father of Copenhagen.

Grammaticus calls Copenhagen 'the Traders' Port' (København in Danish) and tells us how King Valdemar gave control of the town to his friend Absalon in the late 1150s.

On today's city tour you pass by the Tivoli Gardens and the Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek. You drive through the colorful canal district and past the National Museum, by Christiansborg Palace, home to the Danish Parliament. You continue on to The Old Stock Exchange and across Kongens Nytorv, where we can see the Royal Theatre, world famous for its Royal Ballet. The tour continues past the colorful harbor district of Nyhavn to Amalienborg Palace - winter residence of the Royal Family. Here you have the opportunity of seeing the changing of the Guard. This is followed by a visit to the Gefion Fountain and The Little Mermaid, inspired by H. C. Andersen's fairytale.

During the tour we pass by one of the many magnificent churches in Copenhagen as well as Rosenborg Castle, where the Crown Jewels are protected by the Royal Guard.

Overnight.
