

145 Try Out Southern Sweden

The southernmost part of Sweden is perfect for short trips. The distances are short, the sights are very diverse. During this tour you can experience Sweden's Stonehenge "Stenar Ale", the medieval town of Ystad and the design and architecture metropolis Copenhagen.

Day 1: Puttgården – Ängelholm (240 km)

On the first day of your journey, you take the ferry from Puttgården to Rødby and then from Helsingør to the Swedish city of Helsingborg. In the course of the journey you will continue to Ängelholm where you will stay for the next two nights. Ängelholm is a small idyllic city which is well-known for its salmon-fishing and cuckoo-flutes made of clay.

Day 2: Day Trip to Gothenburg (390 km)

After the breakfast you have the possibility for a day trip to Sweden's most important trade and industrial city Gothenburg. During an optional two-hour city tour you will get to know the most relevant sights. After the tour you will drive back to your hotel. Overnight stay in Ängelholm.

Day 3: Ängelholm – Ystad – Malmö – Trelleborg (210 km)

After breakfast you will get on the trails of commissar Wallander, the central character of the world famous detective stories of Henning Mankell. First you will get to Ystad on the south coast where the criminal cases were answered. After an optional guided city tour you will travel to Kåseberga, a picturesque fishing village. Here you should visit the stone-aged "Ale Stenar", the Stonehenge of Sweden. In the following you will travel to Malmö and Lund. The today's University City was founded in 1020 and was once a bishop's see and cultural centre. In the evening you board the ship of TT-Line to get from Trelleborg to Travemünde. You will spend the night on the ferry.

Day 4: Arrival in Travemünde

Breakfast on board the ship. After you arrived to Travemünde you will start your journey homeward.
